Mission Statement

The mission of the Huron Historical Society is to acquire, preserve, interpret, study, maintain, and exhibit historical documents, photographs, and other materials relating to the history and progress of the Huron community. This mission is fulfilled by:

1. Establishing a research resource center in conjunction with the Huron Public Library for the preservation of all related materials, and encouraging and promoting its use by the public, students, historians, and other interested individuals.
2. Promoting research and education in history of the Huron area.
3. Encouraging and developing historical and cultural programs and events which educate and benefit the Huron community.
4. Cooperating with like-minded organization in the private and public sectors in the promotion of these efforts.

The Huron Historical Society, Inc. is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a not-for-profit charitable organization under sec 501 (c)(3) and is chartered by the State of Ohio as a charitable organization.
